The background of the poster is a collage of children's artwork. It includes a drawing of a house with a red roof and yellow walls, a green tree, a pink fish, and a drawing of a person. A small label on one of the drawings reads "Lillian Argente, 10-Knot, Grade K, Oak Hill Elementary School, Mrs. Frazier".

A photograph of three young children sitting outdoors with several large orange pumpkins. The child on the left is a girl with blonde hair wearing a yellow shirt with 'big sister' printed on it. The child in the middle is a girl with brown hair, also smiling. The child on the right is a boy with blonde curly hair wearing a plaid shirt and a dark vest. They are all smiling at the camera. In the background, there are some dried corn cobs and a wooden structure. The overall scene is autumnal and festive.

OUR COMMUNITIES MATTER.

Share your voice, share your story.

Join us for the evening kick-off off a new, first-of-its kind experience designed to explore and celebrate the voices of our communities - sharing stories, camaraderie, and exploring both our heritage and direction for the future of our unique Appalachian home.

Participants will enjoy a free catered meal, create collective expressions that showcase the resiliency and spirit of our communities, and will learn about mini-grant opportunities to fund projects in their hometowns.

Our collaboration through the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Culture of Health Prize Alumni Network is supported by a County Health Rankings & Roadmaps Community Collaborative Learning Fund award.
