An Open Communities Experience

November 7, 2019 @ 6pm

Our Town Theatre (Oakland, Maryland)

The event is free and open to everyone who lives, works, or plays in Garrett County, Maryland.

OUR COMMUNITIES MATTER.

Share your voice, share your story.

Join us for the evening kick-off of a new, first-of-its-kind experience designed to explore and celebrate the voices of our communities - sharing stories, camaraderie, and exploring both our heritage and direction for the future of our unique Appalachian home.

Participants will enjoy a free catered meal, create collective expressions that showcase the resiliency and spirit of our communities, and will learn about mini-grant opportunities to fund projects in their hometowns.

Due to the anticipated demand for this event, and provided meal, participants are required to register online at: <http://bit.ly/impactgcevent>
(Need assistance? Call 301-334-7777.)

Our collaboration through the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Culture of Health Prize Alumni Network is supported by a County Health Rankings & Roadmaps Community Collaborative Learning Fund award.

A photograph of three children sitting on a pile of pumpkins at a pumpkin patch. The child on the left is a girl with blonde hair wearing a yellow shirt with 'big sister' written on it. The child in the middle is a girl with brown hair wearing a yellow shirt. The child on the right is a boy with blonde curly hair wearing a plaid shirt and a dark vest. They are all smiling. In the background, there are pumpkins and a wooden structure. The text 'GARRETT COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL & GARRETT COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT PRESENT' is overlaid at the top.
