Maryland Community Health Resources Commission issues first Consortium Call for Proposals to expand access to student behavioral health services statewide; up to $120 million will be available.

Funds will be used to expand, establish, and support mental health services across the State.

Annapolis, MD – The Maryland Community Health Resources Commission (CHRC), an independent commission within the Maryland Department of Health (MDH), released the first Coordinated Community Supports Partnerships Call for Proposals today. The Call for Proposals will provide up to $120 million in new grant funding made available by the Maryland General Assembly to support increased access to mental health services for students, pre-kindergarten through high school, statewide. The Call for Proposals can be accessed at: <https://health.maryland.gov/mchrc/Pages/notices.aspx>

A Frequently Asked Questions call will be held on August 29, 2023, at 10:00 AM (see below for Zoom meeting information). Questions may be submitted in advance to: md.consortium@maryland.gov. Registration for the FAQ call is not mandatory but appreciated. Click here to register.

Grant applications must be submitted electronically to: Jen Clatterbuck (jen.clatterbuck@maryland.gov) by noon on October 11, 2023. Awards are expected to be made in December 2023.
